WINE LIST

100% of our beverage list is proudly Australian - a celebration of the country's most dynamic producers and innovative distillers, from small family-owned estates to iconic, nationally recognised names. We place a strong focus on championing the work of female owners, winemakers, and viticulturists [fw].

The beauty of Australian wine lies in its foundation of innovation and resilience. Our winemakers are constantly adapting to changing climates, championing alternative varietals - without the constraints of tradition, offering a fresh, exciting perspective in the glass.

Our selection brings together established icons and emerging voices, reflecting a modern Australian identity: confident, curious, and constantly evolving. We invite you to explore this curated journey through our country's most exciting vineyards and vignerons.

We acknowledge the Gadigal people of the Eora Nation which surrounds us. We recognise their enduring connection to country and culture. We pay our respects to elders past, present and emerging. We extend that respect to traditional custodians across Australia, whose lands, waters, and skies nurture the produce we celebrate.

SPARKLING WINE

TASMANIAN SPARKLING

In Tasmania, Australia's finest sparkling wines find their voice, shaped by cold seas, long seasons, and remarkable purity. At the heart of this story is House of Arras and the visionary craftsmanship of Ed Carr, whose dedication to the traditional method has redefined Australian sparkling.

A tribute to a pioneering spirit and an extraordinary place, where elegance, complexity, and quiet power rise in every glass.

RIESLING

OFF DRY

Bright, juicy, and just a little bit sweet, this style of Riesling walks the perfect tightrope between sugar and zingy acidity. That touch of residual sugar isn't just for fun - it lifts the fruit flavours, smooths out the tartness, and creates a beautifully balanced wine that's refreshing, vibrant, and wildly food-friendly. It's like sunshine in a glass, with just enough sweetness to keep you coming back for more.

OFF THE BEATEN VINE

BRIGHT & AROMATIC

A fresh chapter in Australian wine is unfolding, led by vibrant white varietals. Think the same friend group as Riesling and Sauvignon Blanc - stealing the spotlight with lifted aromatics, zesty acidity, and food-loving personalities. These emerging styles are thriving in diverse regions, from coastal vineyards to cool-climate hillsides, offering brightness, texture, and serious drinkability. They're redefining what Australian white wine can be: expressive, refreshing, and full of personality.

OFF THE BEATEN VINE

RICH & TEXTURAL

For those who like a bit of depth in their glass, this group of emerging varietals - think textural cousins of Chardonnay are bringing weight, spice, and intrigue to the glass. Grown by creative hands in regions that let their complexity shine, these wines lean into richness and texture, combining stone fruit, florals, and savoury edges with expressive grip. They're built for food, cool evenings, and anyone ready to explore beyond the usual.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON & SHIRAZ BLENDS

AUSSIE CLARET — THE GREAT AUSTRALIAN BLEND

This classic Aussie red was born of ingenuity and a little necessity. Back in the 1950s, winemakers found that Cabernet Sauvignon gave structure but could be lean, while Shiraz thrived in the sun and added rich, ripe fruit. So they joined forces, creating a blend that was both elegant and generous. The result? A wine as bold and balanced as Australia itself: our own "Great Australian Red."

PENFOLDS

Penfolds began in 1844, when Dr. Christopher Penfold — a physician who believed in the healing powers of wine (preach) — and his wife Mary planted their first vines at Magill Estate near Adelaide. What started as a doctor's tonic soon became a national obsession. A century later, Chief Winemaker Max Schubert set out to prove Australia could make reds to rival Europe's best. His bold experiment, blending Shiraz with a touch of Cabernet and ageing it in new oak, became Grange. Once ridiculed, now revered, it stands as the benchmark of Australian winemaking and a tribute to ambition that changed everything.
